

Listed below are Garden State Equality's endorsed candidates for New Jersey state legislature.

One week from today, Tuesday, November 6th, is Election Day. All 120 seats in the state legislature are up for election, including all 40 seats in the Senate and all 80 seats in the Assembly. New Jersey has 40 state legislative districts, each represented by one Senator and two Assembly members. That means you can vote for one Senate candidate and two Assembly candidates.

For those who don't follow New Jersey politics closely, the option to vote for two Assembly candidates can seem counterintuitive. You may vote for the two Democratic Assembly candidates in your district; or the two Republican Assembly candidates; or one Democratic and one Republican Assembly candidate; or you may vote for just one Assembly candidate rather than two.

To find which state legislative district you live in, please visit <http://www.njleg.state.nj.us/districts/municipalities.asp> , the state legislature's web page that lists districts by municipality.

Newark and Jersey City are each divided into three state legislative districts -- and the site above will not be helpful. If you live in Newark or Jersey City, or in any other municipality not listed on the site above, please call Garden State Equality headquarters at (973) GSE-LGBT, let us know your address, and we'll let you know your district.
